

Dubovik Olga Leonidovna

Doctor of Science, Professor, Chief Research Officer of State and Law Institute of Russian Academy of Science

O.L. Dubovik was born in Ufa (Russia) on 22-nd of November 1949

In 1972 graduated with honors from Lyvov State University – faculty of Law.

From 1972 to 1975r. was a postgraduate student in Soviet Union Institute of criminality origin and protection of USSR Public Prosecution Office

In 1976 defended a PhD thesis “Decision making in mechanism of criminal behavior” under academician V.N.Kudriavcev direction.

In 1993 – doctor of law thesis "Mechanisms of Environmental Law (legal and sociological aspects)".

Since 1975 she is a research worker in State and Law Institute of Russian Academy of Science.

O.L.Dubovik speaks fluently German, Ukrainian and Polish languages.

Participated in following projects: “Environmental protection by means of Criminal Law” (Freiburg, Germany, 1988-1989), “Efficient Environmental policy - rat” – efficient Environmental Law” (Bilefeld, Germany, 1998-1999).

O.L.Dubovik was a grant holder of Max Plank Society (1988-1998),
Alexander von Humboldt Fund (1990-1991, 1993-1994), G and K. MacArthur (1996-1997), Washington University (2000, 2001, 2002).

The scope of her scientific interests is – Criminal law, Environmental law, Administrative law, and Medical law, criminology and sociology of law, comparative law, in particular theoretical issues of environmental law, criminal and administrative liability for environmental law violation, environmental criminology, anti-corruption activity in the field of eco-licensing, illegal trade of environment, law efficiency, mechanisms of law force.

She is an author of more than 200 scientific publications. Among them – “Manual of Environmental Law” (Moscow, 2003), textbooks: “Decision making in mechanism of criminal conduct” (Moscow, 1976), “Environmental Law: questions and answers” (Moscow, 2001), “Environmental Law. Elementary course” (Moscow, 2002), scientific studies: “Environmental Crime Reasons” (Moscow, 1988) (in co-authorship), “Mechanism of Law action in environmental protection” (Moscow, 1994), “Environmental Crimes. Comments to 26th Chapter of Russian Federation Criminal Code” (Moscow, 1998).

She is a member of composite authors of different monographic studies (1978-2009), comments to Criminal Code of Russian Federation, administrative Codes of USSR and Russian Federation, managing editor of manual “Practical aid to environmental police” (Moscow, 2003), she is co-author and editor of comments to the Russian Federation Laws “On Environmental protection”, “On specially protected nature areas”, “On Animal protection” (Moscow, 2010), collected papers: “Modern Environmental Law in Russia and abroad” (Moscow, 2001), “Modern Medical Law in Russia and abroad” (M., 2003) and other. She is an editor and co-author of book “Environmental crime in Europe” (Russian edition) (Moscow, 2010). She made a considerable contribution in interpretation of current administrative, criminal and environmental legislation, in environmental law analysis of European Union, Germany and Poland.

O.L.Dubovik developed a model of environmental law force: on the basis of comprehensive sociological studies she developed a new field in Russian environmental law – environmental criminology, based on studies of environmental corruption in the sphere of illegal trade of environment, environmental certification and licensing, theory of environmental crime reasons, theory of environmental collisions.

O.L.Dubovik is a member of Scientific Consulting Board of Moscow Mayor, Board of Moscow Government Environmental Department.

From 1994 to 1999 she was a member of Main Scientific Board of Environmental Committee of Russian State Duma (Russian Parliament).

O.L.Dubovik works on developing of new generation of Russian environmental lawyers. Under her direction more than 10 PhD and one Doctor of Law thesis's were written and defended.

Total amount of O.L.Dubovik scientific publication is more than 250.

O.L.Dubovik is an editor and author of numerous articles of manuals "Comments to Russian Federation Land Code" (Moscow, 2006), "Comments to Russian Federation Water Code" (Moscow, 2007) (author of Introduction, prefaces to chapters and comments to numerous articles).

O.L.Dubovik published the 2nd Edition of "Environmental Law Manual" (written with co-author of distinguished German environmental law scientists – L.Krämer and G. Lübbe-Wolff (Moscow, Eksmo, 2008), where she wrote a section devoted to Environmental Law in Russian Federation, 3d Edition of "Environmental Law Manual" (Moscow, Prospect, 2009) and 3d Edition of "Environmental Law: questions and answers" (Moscow, Prospect, 2009).

She has organize the translation, editing of Russian version and publication of several German books ("Environmental law of EU" by L.Krämer and G.Winter (Moscow, Gorodetz , 2007); "Environmental crime in Europe" edited by F.Comt and L.Krämer (Moscow, Gorodetz , 2010)) and numerous of articles of German scientists on actual problems of Criminal and Environmental Law.

Recently O.L.Dubovik works on actual problems of environmental law. Such as biodiversity, climate change, water protection, energy resources and other.

Annually O.L.Dubovik publishes numerous scientific articles on urgent topics of environmental and criminal law in Russia and other foreign countries (China, Germany, Kazakhstan, Poland).

In 2009 she completed the study "2009 Targeted Research Grant on Environmental Crimes in Russia" funded by Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC) USA